

Wimbledon Items

News, May 17—Mrs. C. A. Sanford of Courtenay was a guest of Wimbledon friends Thursday.

Andrew Joos has been confined to his home for a week with erysipelas. He had a very severe attack of it, but is able to be out again.

C. N. McGillivray, who has been employed at the Kuntz Pharmacy for several weeks, has purchased the business and hereafter the store will be known as the Red Cross Pharmacy.

Dr. J. M. Caldwell returned to Wimbledon Thursday evening after spending several weeks at his home in Barrie, Ont. Mrs. Caldwell stopped at Charles City, Iowa, for a few days visit.

It will be interesting to his many friends to know that J. J. Childs, who recently left here for Mountain Home, Idaho, has purchased a large tract of land there from E. B. Turner, and will make their home there.

Miss Leola Layden, a niece of C. M. Dale here, arrived the latter part of last week from Browns Valley, Minn., and Monday of this week commenced teaching school north of Wimbledon in the Stewart district.

J. J. Bascom left this week for Columbus, Ohio, as a delegate from this district to the general assembly meetings of delegates from Presbyterian churches over the United States. At the close of the assembly Mr. Bascom will visit in Vermont and New York states, returning here about the first of July.