

WIMBLEDON ITEMS

News, Nov. 16— About fifty guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Clendenning on Saturday evening of last week, the occasion being a reception given in honor of Harold Pierce and his charming bride.

Dr. T. J. Caldwell and Mrs. J. M. Caldwell were visitors to Grand Forks Monday.

Wm. Anderson was here from Medina this week attending to some business matters. He reported the family well and business good.

Dr. Wanner reports J. M. Colard and Mrs. H. T. Belknap under his care with typhoid fever. Both patients are getting along very nicely and all hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. J. Feckler and Mrs. French left Thursday for the east. Mrs. Feckler will visit relatives in Michigan state for a few months and Mrs. French will spend the winter in the southern states.

August Darkenwald returned Thursday from Hunters Hot Springs. He says John Reuter is much better than when he left here, but it will be some time yet before he will be cured of the rheumatism.

R. B. Cox and the writer transacted business at Minneapolis Monday. During our stay there we visited Mr. Stroud at Ashbury hospital. He is getting along nicely and will probably be permitted to leave the hospital in about ten days.
