

Wimbledon Items

News, Nov. 22—Dr. Caldwell reports a baby girl born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wynes.

Mrs. McCoy of Carrington was here Tuesday giving instructions in painting. She has a class of eight ladies here and will give two lessons a week.

John M. Joos left Thursday for Charles City, Iowa, where he will take a course of instruction in engineering at the factory of the Hart-Parr gasoline engines.

Hon. Joseph Nogosek, commissioner from Stutsman county, was here today greeting friends. He had been inspecting the new grade on the county line south of Wimbledon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Baum left Thursday evening for Emelton, Pa., where they expect to make their future home. Their many friends here wish them every success in their new home.

Joe Gebus is here from Portal this week greeting friends. Joe has a fine farm near Ambrose, this state. He will go to Wisconsin in a few days for a short visit and then return to his farm for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Christ and daughters Minnie and Adeline, and Mrs. Steve Greshik left for Rochester, Minn., Sunday. They will receive treatment at the Mayo Bros.' hospital there for several weeks.

Fred Carlson returned Tuesday from Fargo, bringing with him "Valley Online," the trotting stallion owned by Barlson & Clendenning. The animal has showed great development in speed while being driven by a trainer at Fargo the past month.