News, Nov. 1—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Flewell are spending the week at New Rockford as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson.

Dr. Caldwell reports a baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Art Hammer Tuesday. Folks are all getting along nicely.

Fred Altringer and son Henry left Friday morning for St. Cloud, Minn., where Henry will study for the priesthood.

The wedding of Carl Anderson and Miss Violeta Washburn, two of Wimbledon's popular young people, took place at Valley City Wednesday afternoon, at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. Jas. Anderson performing the ceremony. The bride and groom were accompanied by Ben Walscher and Emma Schrieter. The many friends of the contracting couple here join in extending best wishes.

A large audience was present in the M. E. church Sunday evening to welcome Rev. Hewson back, and were rewarded by having the privilege of listening to an eloquent sermon. The pastor was at his best and held the attention of his hearers to the last. Mr. Hewson begins his eighth year as pastor of this church with brighter prospects than ever before, and ere conference week rolls around again, we believe the church membership roll will be largely increased and Mr. and Mrs. Hewson's friends will be as ever anxious to have them returned here.
