

WIMBLEDON ITEMS

News, Oct. 5—The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sisk is seriously ill.

Drs. Caldwell report a baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Otten of Leal, Sunday.

Paul Kokett was operated on for appendicitis at the Platou hospital in Valley City Monday and is getting along nicely.

Henry LaBrasch was in from Spiritwood lake Thursday. He reports this season the best he has ever had for trade at the popular summer resort.

It's a 12½ pound boy and Fred Rebhahn passed us the smokes this week. The youngster arrived Monday and may he ever be as happy as his papa is at his coming.

Wm. Sandy has been here from Fargo for several days looking after interests at his farm south of town. Wm. reports a good crop and the farm advanced to $35 per acre. Good deal at that, "Bill."

Druggist Crowley attended a meeting of the directors of the Crowley Drug Company at Fargo this week and arranged to have his household effects shipped to Wimbledon. The family arrived today.

John Maroney, the prosperous and jolly farmer from Stutsman county, transacted business here yesterday. John requested the editor to do a little sketch artist stunt—which we promised to do a little later—when the subject "loomed up" a little better.

The first "Rally Day" of the Presbyterian Sunday school was a success. A goodly number of adults attended. Among the various numbers on the program Albert Vogt's phonograph proved interesting as well as a recitation by Almeda Simpson. The young people's meeting in the evening was especially well attended on account of the instructive missionary address given by Mrs. J. C. Clark.