

Wimbledon Items

Oct. 19—Little Helen Stroud has been quite ill the past week with an attack of tonsilitis.

Geo. H. Simpson has purchased the buildings on the Pete Florin farm and will move them to his home farm.

D. B. Berlin returned from a visit with his family at Rochester, Minn., Tuesday. He reports Miss Geraldine's condition much improved.

Mrs. W. O. Joos and Mrs. C. E. Simmons are in attendance at the state meeting of the Womans Federation of clubs, which is in session at Wahpeton this week.

On Oct. 15th, ground was broken for the proposed new Catholic church. The new edifice will be erected north of the old church. Probably no foundation wall will be built this fall.

The quartet that sang at the Presbyterian Synod meetings at Fargo last week have received many nice compliments. The quartet consisted of the Revs. Lawrence of Minot, Fulton of Oakes, Stewart of Wilton and Georgi of Wimbledon.

The marriage of Miss Catharina Theisen and Mr. Frank Smithknecht was solemnized at the temporal Catholic church in the school house on Tuesday, Oct. 15th. The Rev. Father Bierens performed the ceremony. We extend best wishes to the happy couple.

D. E. Crowley has purchased the interests of the shareholders of the local drug firm known as the Crowley Drug Co., and will hereafter conduct the business alone. The change is pleasing to Mr. Crowley's many friends here as he has made a success of the business and has one of the most complete stocks and finest stores in the state.

Rev. Funck returned Monday from his trip to New Rockford, where he occupied the pulpit in the German church Sunday. He reports that the crops there are not nearly as good as here, as a number of hail storms damaged the crops in that vicinity. The crops from Barlow to Carrington were almost totally destroyed by hail. The elevators at Barlow are all closed.