News, Oct. 19—The Wimbledon Entertainment association was organized Thursday evening. The following officers were elected: R. B. Cox, president; J. L. More, vice president; H. W. Georgi, secretary; J. J. Bascom, treasurer. This will be a permanent organization.

Sam Lowe is seriously ill at his home south of town, suffering from blood poisoning.

Anton Fried left last week for Hunter Hot Springs, Mont. Mr. Fried has not been feeling well for some time, and his many friends over the state hope his visit to the famous springs will prove beneficial.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thos Sisk died Monday after a lingering illness of several weeks. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. M. Hewson of the M. E. church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

A fellow working on Pete Altringer's threshing rig and giving Ray Anderson as his name, got busy Sunday last writing checks and signing Pete's name to them. He was successful in cashing several of them with our business men, but when he presented one to Howard Belknap, he was requested to wait a few minutes—until Howard investigated. He didn't wait and hasn't been seen or heard of since. Mr. "Forger" got away with about $75 in cash. "Shorty" says "you can't fool all the people all the time"—he was caught once before.
