

Wimbledon Items

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Feckler returned Thursday morning from Winona, Minn., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Feckler's father.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Isley Saturday the first. Mother and child are doing nicely and Grandpa Frank Kline never seemed more happy.

Anton Gieson, brother to Miss Thresia Gieson and Mrs. Reuter here was lately married. "Tony" was well known here and friends extend congratulations.

J. J. Feckler and Wm. McDonald left Tuesday evening for Alberta country, Canada. Mr. McDonald may decide to visit the western coast country before returning here.

Elmer Clausen came down from Brinsmade the first of the week to visit with his folks for a few days. Elmer was looking prosperous and reported business good in his town. His many friends were glad to see him and only wish he could arrange to visit us often.

The school election held Tuesday proved to be very exciting at the close. At 4 o'clock there were only a few votes polled. At this late hour J. A. Peterson was induced to run for director in opposition to R. B. Cox; and J. J. Feckler for treasurer in opposition to H. M. Stroud. There were 112 votes polled and resulted in the election of R. B. Cox and H. M. Stroud.

Call to Convention

The Barnes and Griggs county W. C. T. U. convention will be entertained at Valley City, June 25 and 26th.

A good program will be given, in which a number of Valley City's talented people, with others from neighboring towns of the two counties will assist. While the able assistance of our loved and honored state president, Mrs. Anderson, is counted upon.

There will be a gold medal oratorical contest one evening to be participated in by silver medalists from Leal, Sanborn, Valley City and two from Cooperstown.

Good speaking and music, drills and papers will be assured to those who attend this convention. Let each union send a