

Wimbledon Items

News, March 22—Joel Baum, J. D. Furcht and M. L. Feckler joined a land seeker's excursion to Calgary Wednesday evening.

Martin Darkenwald and Remold Flohr returned from Fargo this week where they attended school during the winter term.

Alfred, Peter and Alex Duxupt and F. O. Fried returned last Friday from Fargo after completing a commercial course at the Dakota Business College.

J. A. Peterson has installed a new switchboard at the telephone exchange this week to accomodate the increasing patronage. John is giving the best service that is to be had.

Dr. Caldwell reports the arrival of a bouncing baby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alswager southwest of Courtenay, Monday. Mother and child doing nicely and Frank is said to be wearing a 2x4 scantling smile.