

MRS. SAMUEL ATCHISON

At the home of her son, Sam Atchison, Jr., Friday morning at about ten o'clock occurred the death of Mrs. Sam Atchison, Sr., her demise being brought about by a severe case of pneumonia. She was a little over 64 years of age at the time of her death. Interment was held in the Courtenay cemetery Sunday afternoon and a large funeral procession followed the mortal remains to her last resting place.

Deceased was born in Wellington county, Ontario, in the year 1846. At the age of 20 she became married to Samuel Atchison and after five years residence in the country of their birth, they moved to Crawford county, Wisconsin, where they made their home for nine years before coming to North Dakota where they settled on a farm northwest of Courtenay.

Nine children were born to them, three sons and six daughters. Sam Jr. is farming the old homestead while John J. and Henry are living in western Canada. The daughters are: Mrs. Jane Blathna of Wauseca, Wis.; Mrs. Davy of Valley City; Mrs. T. J. McMullen of Centuria, Wis.; Mrs. J. C. Wold of Jamestown, Mrs. Wm. Walker of Courtenay and another daughter living elsewhere.

The deceased was of benevolent character and loving disposition and was wont to administer to the various ills of the neighbors and her death will be a sad blow to many who knew her most intimately.
