

---

Saturday evening the fifteen month old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bartkowski died at their home. The baby had been ailing for some time but no serious apprehension was felt until it took a sudden turn for the worse. Before a doctor could be summoned life was extinct. The little body was buried immediately after the funeral of the body of Jacob Siebert. The parents, who are bereft of their youngest, have the sincere sympathy of the community.

---