Emil J. Ersin, aged 39 years, passed away in his rooms in the Painter building, Sunday June 12, at 8:45 p. m. Death came after a short confinement to his bed and was due to diabetes. He had been in poor health during the past three years and came here a few weeks ago from Siloam Springs, Ark., in hope that the change of climate would help him, and engaged in business, purchasing the post-office store from J. W. Rockey at that time.

Deceased was born May 30, 1871 and was married March 7, 1896. He leaves a wife and three children the oldest being a daughter of 12 years to mourn his loss. He lived at Courtenay, N. D., until three years ago, at which time he went to Texas for his health. From Texas he went to Siloam Springs where he remained for a while and came here April 15th, of this year. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity at Anoka, Minn., of the Modern Woodmen at Detroit, and the I. O. O. F. at Courtenay, N. D. Deceased also leaves beside his family, a brother at Minneapolis, Minn.

The funeral services were from the Methodist church being held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. A short sermon was delivered by Rev. G. L. Crow and the funeral services were carried out under the auspices of the Masonic order, it having been his request that this organization have charge of the body. Interment was made at Mt. Hope cemetery with beautiful and impressive ceremonies by this order.

The above clipping was sent to Mrs. C. A. Edwards by the widow of the deceased. Mr. Ersin was well known here having been in business in Courtenay for several years prior to moving south for his health.
