

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Fosholdt went to Cooperstown Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. Fosholdt's brother, Torvell, who died last Wednesday from a complication of diseases. He received a message from his brother apprising him of his serious sickness and though the journey to Cooperstown was made in haste by auto, he arrived there too late to be at the bedside of his brother before his death.