

The Courtenay Gazette.

P. E. SCHLEY. EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

Subscription price, $1.50 per annum. All subscribers will be considered regular, and the paper continued until ordered to be stopped. As a rule, the paper will not be continued more than one year without a settlement. When longer credit is granted by the publisher, the subscriber will be required to pay for the full time the paper is accepted.

PUBLISHED ON THURSDAY OF EACH WEEK

Entered as second class matter at the post-office at Courtenay, North Dakota, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

All copies for advertising, local readers and notices of any kind must be sent in not later than Wednesday evening if to be inserted in the succeeding issue of each week.

KENSAL

Miss Gertrude Thompson returned from Rock Rapids, Ia., Friday evening after having spent the winter with her parents.

Herbert Croonquist returned home Friday morning feeling much improved in health after having spent several weeks at the Hot Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Greb and family arrived from Wisconsin the first of the week and will make their home with Mr. Greb's parents on the farm.

Miss Irene Clancy has been ill the past week with a light attack of pneumonia.

Miss Blanche Smith Sundayed with her parents near Courtenay. Mr. Smith and family recently moved onto the old Kerr farm now owned by Wm. Jones.

Frank Heaney brought his auto up from Courtenay the latter part of last week and has been giving his friends rides in and about Kensal.

Dr. Plant and family, of Jud, came over in their auto Friday and spent Sunday at the Sterret home north of town.

The families of C. W. McDonnell, Sophus Fredrickson and L. W. Guslander have moved onto their farms for the coming season.

The Misses Frownfelters returned to Valley City Monday evening to resume their studies at the Normal.

Miss Georgia Feckler and Mrs. Hoy returned from Rochester, Minn., Friday evening where the former had been taking medical treatment.

Miss Marie Christensen returned to Valley City Tuesday morning, having spent her spring vacation with her parents.

Frank Jones, who has been teaching in the F. L. Nogosek district, left for his home at Deer Park, Wis., Monday evening.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Christensen is very ill from an attack of pneumonia.

Otto Fenske of Bordulac visited at the F. L. Kuhry home the first of the week.

Mrs. Vern H. Smith left Friday evening for Ambrose where she will join her husband.

Glenn Farrar is moving his household effects into the Sophus Fredrickson residence.

Mrs. Hoy returned to Wimbledon Sunday evening after having spent several days with Miss Feckler.

James Nelson and family, of Carrington, have taken up their residence on their farm west of town.

The Misses Lottie Posey, of Courtenay, and Malinda Johnson, of McHenry, have begun spring terms in schools north of here.

Mrs. Wm. Teidjie Sundayed with relatives in Carrington.

Anton K. Johnson was born at Oconto Falls, Wis. on Nov. 2, 1880 and died at Conrad, Mont. on Wednesday, March 29, 1911. He was the fourth son of Mrs. Albert Hanson of this place. Following a brief illness of only 24 hours, Anton passed away peacefully. The only relative being with him at the time of his sickness and death was his brother Garfield who also accompanied the remains to Kensal. Funeral services were held from the Congregational church on Sunday afternoon, following a brief service at the house, Rev. Hynes officiating. A choir of six voices rendered appropriate music. Services were concluded at the grave by the B. of A. Y. of which order Anton was a beneficiary member. He will be sadly missed by his large circle of friends and in social circles where he always took an active part before leaving Kensal a short time ago to make residence on his claim in Montana. Anton leaves to mourn his sudden demise, his mother, Mrs. Albert Hanson, and sister, Mrs. Julius Fredrickson, four brothers, J. W., J. P. and Ed. all of Kensal and Garfield of Shelby, Mont.

The drill team and several visiting neighbors of the R. N. A. went to Wimbledon Monday evening to help in the initiation of five new members into the Golden Rod camp and install officers. They were highly entertained and report a very enjoyable trip.

JIM LAKE AND VICINITY

Groves Reibe and Miss Nettie Guenther spent the week's end with their respective home folks returning to German school near Courtenay last Sunday. Next Sunday confirmation services will be held there after which the young people forming the class will return to their homes.

E. Krubach drove to Courtenay Sunday to visit relatives.

Walter Cavin brought a valuable horse from Olaf Larson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thompson of Kensal made an overland trip to Pingree last Sunday.

Boys and girls are busy now trying to find as many trophies as possible from the gopher family to present to the man who counts the tails.

Miss Mary Gaffney attended the home talent play at Kensal Friday night.

Cysewski Bros. were in this vicinity Friday with landseekers from Fayette, Iowa, who were interested in North Dakota soil and had a view towards purchasing land in our neighborhood.

Osmer Burleson has purchased Mrs. Smith's residence in Kensal and will repair and fit it up soon.

Miss Minnie Krubach is spending two weeks at her parents home and will return next week to her duties at the Commercial hotel.

Miss Hummel spent last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. R. H. Koves, returning to Kensal Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Thorman has been suffering from an attack of the grippe but is reported to be better at present.

Mrs. Anton Bartosek has been quite ill but is improving. Pneumonia was feared for a time.

Miss Mamie Broderson spent last week at the parental home having a week's vacation from school duties at Valley City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lonski are now settled in their new home at Kensal and will be pleased to meet old friends and neighbors.

Miss Helena Reibe spent a pleasant week with home folk during her vacation from Valley City.

F. G. Ferguson and family Sundayed at the Reibe home.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and aid given us during the last illness of our beloved relative. That God may repay you tenfold is the wish of Mrs. Anna McCormick and family.

ALMOST LIBELOUS.

Compositor — This headline "Wrestling Match Won in Three Straight Falls," is several letters too long.

Foreman — Scratch out the word "straight."