

DIED

BABY BOY OF MR. AND MRS. H. N. LUNDE SUMMONED BY DEATH AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS.

The grim reaper of death entered the home of one of our citizens and friends and snuffed out the life of an innocent babe without regard to the excruciating suffering of the devoted parents. On the same day that our honored and respected friend and citizen, C. A. Sanford, was laid to rest in the recesses of the earth the news reached the residents of this vicinity that Rolland, the little year-old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Herman N. Lunde, had died after a brief illness of a complication of diseases. The little body was taken to Hennings, Minn., the home of Mr. Lunde's parents, where interment was held in the family lot.

Rolland N. Lunde was born in Jamestown, N. D., on Dec. 10, 1909, and died on Saturday, Jan. 21, being thirteen months and eleven days old.

None but those who have sat in the shadow of a great bereavement can justly weigh such a sorrow as this. Those who have gone down in the valley of suffering and stood by the side of a loved one, as hope after hope dropped away as the petals fall from a fading flower, know that such anguish can not find solace in the tenderest words. Much has been taken from the father and mother, sweet ties have been severed, but much is left. The Christian's hope and fadeless memories are still theirs.

The sincerest sympathy goes out to the bereaved parents from the whole community. May time heal the wound that fate has so ruthlessly ruptured.
