

---

Steve Peterson, formerly a resident in the northern part of this county and well known here, is reported to have died in a hospital at Montivedio, Minn., from injuries received in a railroad wreck while moving from South Dakota to Weston, Minn. He was a man of middle age and his friends will regret his early demise.

---