

---

C. H. Ross, president of the First National bank of Courtenay, died at his home in Minneapolis last Friday afternoon. He left a large estate which will be kept intact and the banking business in which Mr. Ross was interested will be run the same in the future as in the past. W. E. C. Ross, president of the First National bank of Blue Earth, Minn., will assist in the management of the estate and of the banks.

---