

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Sluga mourn the death of their eighteen months old baby girl who succumbed to the grim reaper yesterday. She has been afflicted with spinal meningitis which was the ultimate cause of her early demise. The bereaved parents have had more than their share of trouble having lost by death another child only a few months ago from the same disease and are deserving of the sincerest sympathy. Interment was held today at the Catholic cemetery at Wimbledon.