

Rumor has it that our popular proprietor of the European restaurant, Geo. Adams, quietly slipped away the latter part of last week and got married to Mrs. Anna Waters, the chef of the culinary department of this well known eating house. After interviewing about forty-seven different persons and invariably receiving the same answer, "I don't know but I guess so," it appeared that the whole proceeding was shrouded in mystery but the fact that George set up the stogies and to a direct inquiry of a reporter of this great family Journal gave the answer "that's what they tell me" we concluded that it was safe to make a ten to one bet that they done gone and did it. We can not vouch for the rumor - but since we are unable to do so, "let George do it."
