

Thorsgard- Brastrup

POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE BECOME UNITED IN WEDLOCK BY REV. MORRISON.

Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, at the home of the groom's parents, occurred the marriage of two popular young people of this vicinity. Rev. Morrison of the Jamestown M. E. church spoke the solemn words that united Miss Delta C. Thorsgard and George E. Brastrup to travel in life's pathway as man and wife.

The marriage ceremony was solemnized at the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Brastrup in Jamestown and only a few intimate friends and relatives attended the nuptials, the affair being a quiet one. The young couple expect to take a short honeymoon trip and return to this place where they expect to make their future residence.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Thorsgard, has grown up to womanhood on her father's farm north of town and is an estimable young lady, well liked by all who know her.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Brastrup of Jamestown where he grew up and attended the public and high schools and shortly after moved to Courtenay where he has been in business ever since in connection with his brother-in-law, H. N. Tucker. He is a young man of exemplary habits, modest character, and has the universal respect of a wide circle of friends who extend congratulations and best wishes upon his change from bachelorhood to a long life of wedded bliss.