

The wedding of Louis Burleson and Miss Edna Hammersteadt of Kensal took place in Jamestown last Tuesday afternoon, Judge Hemmi performing the ceremony in a lasting manner. The witnesses were Arthur Burleson and Marie Councilman. Louis Burleson brought the party here in his auto to enjoy the circus after which they went to the court house and Miss Hammersteadt became Mrs. Burleson. The happy young people left at once for their home six miles south of Kensal where he has rented his father's farm and will run it hereafter, Mr. and Mrs. Osmer Burleson intending to remove to Kensal to make their home. — Capital.
