

At the Catholic parsonage, Wimbledon, N. D., Wednesday morning, occurred the marriage of Miss Marie Nogosek of Kensal and Mr. Bert Deimert of Eckelson, N. D. The services being performed by the Rev. Father Bierens. The bride wore a tailored traveling suit of blue broadcloth and was attended by her sister Miss Anna. The groom wore a suit of blue and was attended by his brother George. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nogosek, is one of our choicest young ladies. From a little girl she has grown up in our midst, honored by old and young alike. She has even been a bright star in the home circle and now she has gone to reign as queen in her own home. The groom is also well-known in this vicinity, having acted as clerk for E. W. Stroh during the past year, and during his stay here proved to be a young man of exceptional qualities and was held in the highest esteem by all. Mr. and Mrs. Deimert left on train 108 for Eckelson, where they will make their future home on a farm of the groom's father. The many friends of this promising young couple join in wishing them many years of happiness and prosperity.—Kensal Journal.
