

On Tuesday occurred the wedding of Peter Falk to Miss Anna Gurski at the home of her parents who live four miles southwest of town. This puts an end to Pete's bachelor life and it is unnecessary to say that he feels correspondingly elated over the prospect of pulling in double harness instead of single shaft fashion. They intend to make their home on the Raney farm, south of here, which he has leased for the coming season.