

FOSTER-PHILLIPS

WEDDING OF FORMER COURTENAY GIRL OCCURS IN LASHBURN, SASK.

Announcements of the wedding of Miss Ella Clo Phillips to Ralph Stanley Foster are received. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's father, W. R. Phillips, at the farm home near Lashburn, Sask., on the nineteenth of this month, the union being solemnized by the Rev. C. Barnes of the Marshall, Sask., parsonage.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few of the most intimate friends and relatives being present. After a sumptuous banquet the newly married couple left for their home near Marshall, Sask., where the groom has a fine farm home prepared for his bride.

The bride is a former Courtenay girl, having lived here for a number of years and has a wide acquaintance and many friends who send her an abundance of good wishes for a happy union. The groom is a son of Jabez Foster, a prominent resident of Marshall.
