

Robinson-Gray

MARRIAGE OF YOUNG COUPLE OCCURS AT HOME OF BRIDE'S PARENTS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Robinson, just north of town, was the scene of a pretty home wedding on Saturday when their daughter, Miss Bessie Reid, became the wife of William F. Gray of Tower City.

At exactly three o'clock in the afternoon the words that united the young couple in matrimony were spoken by Rev. J. W. Kingston. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edna, and the groom by William Reid. Only a few of the immediate relatives were present.

To escape the prying eyes and customary departing salutations usually practiced on a newly wedded couple by friends, an auto was secured and a cross-country trip made to Wimbledon where they boarded the east bound evening train on their way to their home at Tower City.

The bride has practically grown up on her father's farm. She has taught in the public schools here and at Tower City for several terms and her pleasing ways have won her not only the love of her pupils and all who knew her but also of affinite nature.

The groom is the son of W. Gray, a well-to-do farmer of Tower City and an old resident of that vicinity. He is the owner of a fine farm on which the happy young couple expect to make their future residence.

A peculiar feature of the wedding held here was the fact that four generations of immediate members of the family were represented, the oldest being Mr. and Mrs. Williams, parents of Mrs. W. Gray, a married son of the latter and their children.
