

Surprised Their Friends

Towner News-Tribune: A wedding of unusual interest took place at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Hall Wednesday evening when Miss Clara Ethel Partch and Mr. Emil Albert Lohrke were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The popular young couple attempted to keep the wedding a secret for a time, and had their plans well laid, but were unsuccessful, and at 10 o'clock in the evening several friends of the couple became suspicious and in order to set their suspicions at rest filed up to the Naylor home and secured a confession.

Miss Partch is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Partch of Leeds but has been employed at the Harris drug store the past six months.

Mr. Lohrke is in the employ of Atty. D. J. O'Connell and is one of Towner's rising young attorneys.

They will make their home in Towner and The News-Tribune joins with their many friends in wishing them all the joys of a happy wedded life.
