

ARE MARRIED AT CLEVELAND

MISS FRANCES OWEN BECOMES THE WIFE OF ELWOOD ROBIN-SON, MONDAY.

Cleveland, N. D., July 7.—At 7 p. m., the Fourth of July, Mr. Elwood Robinson and Miss Frances Owen were quietly married at the home of E. W. Bates, pastor of the M. E. church. No guests were present except Mr. Robinson's father and mother of Courtenay and Mr. Dave Stewart and Miss Hattie Murry, who acted as groomsman and bridesmaid. The bride and groom were led to the matrimonial rug by Mr. Stewart and Miss Murry, and E. W. Bates, with an impressive ceremony, pronounced them husband and wife.

Mr. Robinson has a good position in Mr. Langness' store and Miss Owen is our genial "hello girl" at the telephone office. After a quiet honeymoon of one week which will be spent on the claim of Miss Owen's mother they will return to Cleveland and make it their future home.

May they have that confiding trust in each other which brings happiness to the home and makes life worth living. Here is our hand for a long and happy life.
