

pa...
Tuesday afternoon M. Lee Vale and Miss Mae McCully were united in marriage by Rev. O. C. Gross at the home of her parents on the south side. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only members of the family being present. Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known in Sheldon and vicinity. The bride is one of Sheldon's most popular young ladies, accomplished, refined and cultured, and will be greatly missed in social circles. The groom was for several years employed in P. J. Hoff's drug store, but now has a flourishing drug business of his own at Courtenay. He is a young man of good character and sterling worth. The happy couple left Wednesday morning for their future home at Courtenay.—Sheldon Progress.