

---

A young boy of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Anderson met with a serious accident last week which resulted in the fracture of one of his arms. The accident happened in a peculiar manner. While walking hurriedly from one room to another he slipped and fell in such a manner as to break his arm. The fracture was reset and the lad is getting along as nicely as could be expected.

---