

The Courtenay Gazette.

P. E. SCHLEY, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

Subscription price, $6.00 per annum. All subscribers will be considered regular and the paper continued until ordered to be stopped. As a rule, the paper will not be continued more than one year without a settlement. When longer credit is granted by the publisher, the subscriber will be required to pay for the full time the paper is accepted.

PUBLISHED ON THURSDAY OF EACH WEEK

Entered as second class matter at the post-office at Courtenay, North Dakota, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

All copies for advertising, local readers and notices of any kind must be sent in not later than Wednesday evening if to be inserted in the succeeding issue of each week.

ASHLAND SCREENINGS

The weather has been fine for a few days and some of the farmers are talking of digging out their binders.

Misses Alwena and Martha Braasch spent Friday at the home of their brother John.

Chas. Reick was laid up with the grippe last week.

Chas. Schumacher returned from Jamestown Monday. He reports the dairy convention a great success.

Peter Albright went to Courtenay on business Monday.

John Lange is out from Jamestown spending a few days with friends and relatives.

Miss Laura Barnett visited Miss Ruth Tomlinson Wednesday evening.

Ed Lange purchased a stack of hay from Aug. Albrecht, Sr.

George and Miss Lena Albright went to Jamestown Wednesday.

Miss Lucy Wiechmann returned from Valley City Tuesday, being called home by the illness of her brother Willie.

The entertainment and basket social which was held in School No. 7 last Friday evening was a success and does credit to Miss Ruth Hughes, the teacher. $17 was realized from the sale of the baskets and everyone reports a good time.

Walter Lange visited at the home of Chas. Schumacher Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Christ, of Leal, spent last week with Mrs. Christ's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stabenow.

One of the Durham farmers evidently thinks that it referred to him when the "Owl" mentioned the fact that some one was borrowing a neighbor's paper and has taken it very much to heart. We are sincerely and humbly sorry that we have offended this gentleman but can say only, "If the shoe fits, wear it."

Paul Kokett and Wm. Sperner spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Oscar Reick.

Mrs. John Lulai is on the sick list.

Bischoff Bros. were hauling corn from Courtenay last week.

We are glad to learn that one of the members of the Lutheran church sat very comfortably last Sunday owing to the small attendance.

The regular church services in the Lutheran church will be on Feb. 25th.

"The Owl."

DURHAM PICKINGS

(Too late for last week.)

Mrs. Chas. Merritt and son, Donald, returned from Wimbledon. The latter is just recovering from a serious spell of sickness.

John and George Lavenskofki called at the F. Burleson home Friday night.

The Durham lightweight and Walt Hartfield called on John Albright Saturday evening and played cards.

Frank Gavy called at Merritt's Friday evening.

Chas. Merritt is under the weather with the grippe.

Max Donat called at Merritt's Saturday to get a lemon.

Miss Lydia Albright spent Sunday with her parents.

Louis and John Kaspar were at home over Sunday from Wimbledon where they are attending school.

John Lavenskofki called at A. W. Schumacher's Saturday eve.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schumacher and Ed. called at their father's home Sunday.

Ed. Schumacher visited at Merritt's Friday evening.

Mable Merritt came home from Courtenay High school for Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Albright gave a dinner party Sunday. Everybody had a good time.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Donat is reported to be very sick.

Wm. Homuth, Sr., has been very sick for the past week or two and small hopes are held for his recovery.

Lulu Bradford spent last week at the Merritt home.

Paul Hackstock and wife spent Friday at the James Kennedy home.

Peter Fried, of Fried, is in this part of the country on business.

PLEASANT VIEW

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kjelson spent Sunday afternoon at J. Larson's.

A. Christopherson and family spent Sunday at O. Kjelson's.

A crowd of young folks drove to Helena postoffice Saturday afternoon just to enjoy the splendid sleighing.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Anderson visited at O. Kjelson's Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kjelson took their son Ernest to Fargo on Monday where he will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Elma Soli spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. O. Kjelson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Christopher-