

ASHLAND SCREENINGS

Peter Albrecht went to the Jim river for a week's hunting and trapping.

Rev. Lueker went to New Rockford on a business trip.

Norman Crawford was in our vicinity for a visit with friends and relatives.

Chas. Schumacher and Herbert spent Friday evening at the home of James Kennedy.

Ernest and Fred Bischoff are hauling barley to Courtenay.

Arnold Homuth, a student in the German school, was called home by the illness of his father.

Miss Lena Albrecht went to Courtenay last Thursday.

Chas. Schumacher, of the Ashland Stock farm, recently received a registered Poland China boar. He is a fine specimen of his kind.

E. F. and W. Sperner spent Saturday evening at the home of Adolph Stuff.

Emily Werner returned to Courtenay after spending a few weeks with her parents.

Martin J. Albrecht spent Saturday evening at the home of F. Sperner.

Oscar Reick arrived home from Maddock Saturday.

John Braash went to Wimbledon Monday on business.

Paul Kokott came home from Canada Saturday.

Harry Schumacher hauled barley to Courtenay last week.

Lizzie Albrecht returned home from Courtenay the latter part of last week.

Walter Lange is spending a week in Jamestown under the parental roof.

There was a dance at Joe Nitchey's Sunday evening.

"The Owl."