

ASHLAND SCREENINGS

Paul Kokott is spending the winter with his brother, Tom, at Gull Lake, Sask.

Miss Emma Weichman resigned her position as teacher of the Lyon school.

Saturday evening, Jan. 14th, the young people surprised Adolph Stuff. They passed the time dancing and playing games until early in the morning.

Chas. Schumacher and son, Harry, went to Jamestown last Monday.

The Misses Carrie and Martha Kracht and Walter Lang visited at the Lachow home last Sunday.

Wm. Weichman and family Sundayed at the home of George Albrecht.

George Scharf has just returned from an extended visit in Chicago. He is wearing a broad smile and— Oh its all right! We only wish we were in his shoes.

Miss Alice Albright is spending a few days at the home of Walter Hartfield.

George Albrecht and son, Peter, drove to Jamestown Saturday.

Oscar Reiek is visiting his sisters in Maddock, N. D.

E. F. Sperner had his nose badly frosted while going to Courtenay Thursday. He says it isn't so bad, but everyone asks him if he has been in a scrap.

School No. 1 has 22 pupils enrolled and it keeps Miss Ruth Hughes, their teacher, busy finding books for all of them.

Miss Laura Barnett called on Miss Hughes and Lydia Sperner Sunday.

There was a surprise party at Lavenskofki's Sunday evening. A very pleasant time was reported.

M. J. Albrecht is said to be scouring the mouldboards on his plows and getting everything in shape for spring work. The too early bird is liable to catch a cold.

Fred Bischoff tried to run his automobile through the snow banks but could not make it go. He says if he had a snow plow it would go all right.

Harry Schumacher has traded horses. He says the bad roads and long night drives are hard on horseflesh.

"The Owl."