

---

“Dick” Atcheson left Monday for Canada with a car of mules, horses and other belongings which he will place on his farm on which he filed a few years ago in King George’s domain. He has purchased another quarter section besides and now has as fine a half section farm as can be found anywhere in the Dominion.

---