

---

John Atchison returned Saturday from Canada where he went in quest of some of the free homesteads still to be had in King George's land. He filed on a half section of land about sixty miles from Portal near where his father has been located on a claim for some time. He states they had a fairly good crop in that section of the country and feels confident that the land in that territory will greatly increase in value in the near future.

---