

On complaint of F. B. Aukes, Albert Braasch of Wimbledon is charged with a criminal offense of maiming. The personal injury inflicted upon Aukes was a beating and striking in the eye, by which he lost the sight of the right eye and has just come from a hospital where he received treatment. Both parties live near Wimbledon.