

---

While repairing the automobile Friday morning, George Brastrup had the misfortune to get one of his hands in the way of a revolving gear and had it badly lacerated. A physician dressed the wound and although it is painful the hand will be as good as ever in a few weeks.

---