

SCHOOL NOTES

The Literary Society will hold their next meeting Friday evening. The program will consist of a debate, Resolved—"That Trusts are a Benefit to the United States," and some other numbers. Everybody is invited to attend these meetings.

* *

Mrs. A. A. Hoffman, Miss Keene and Rutledge Kane were visitors this week.

* *

The arrival of the Curfew bell caused quite a stir in the school.

* *

Who helped wash the dishes after the banquet?—Why the boys of course.

* *

Miss Bergen and Vera are keeping bachelor girl's hall during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Prosser.

* *

Owing to the storm the wagon did not come in from the country yesterday.

* *

Alice Posey is back to school again after several days absence.

* *

Bill and Bob are having the time of their lives—eating their own cooking.

* *

Hazel got the first souvenir of the hair cut.

* *

What do you know about a pink fascinator—"Mum" is the word.

* *

According to the work done in High School thier soon will be an over-supply of book-keepers in our city.

* *

The editor of the Literary Digest is very busy lately. Prepare for the worst.

* *

Some of our lads and lassies had a little spread in the fire hall Monday evening. All report a fine time.

* *

A bunch of Wimbledon students came up Saturday evening to witness the basket ball game between Oberon and our lads.
