

SCHOOL NOTES

(By a High School Student)

The Literary met for the last time this season last Friday evening. A good crowd was in attendance and a fairly good program rendered, notwithstanding the fact that for the most part the numbers were impromptu, some of the performers being unable to attend.

We are sorry that "Philetus's" ward robe caused so much commotion in the school the morning after Literary.

* *

Mrs. A. A. Hoffman was a high school visitor on Friday afternoon.

* *

Robert Turner, we are sorry to say has fallen a victim of that dreaded disease, measles.

* *

Sarah Horn returned Saturday evening from her trip to Jamestown and is now back at school.

* *

The "Freshies" have joyfully arrived at the word "finis" in their Latin grammars, and will now have time to say "hello" to a passerby.

* *

Miss Kaiser spent a delightful week end visit at Jamestown and while there attended the high school play.

* *

Miss Mabel Merritt was surprised by a dinner given in her honor last Thursday evening, to which a few intimate friends were invited. All report a pleasant time.

* *

Miss Conway's room enjoyed a supper and auto ride last Thursday evening. All report a delicious supper and a most delightful time.
