

SCHOOL NOTES

(By a High School Student)

High School examinations begin Thursday and will continue until next Friday.

* *

Rev. J. W. Kingston was a school visitor last week and our ex-student, John Swanson, was a visitor this week.

* *

Miss Mary Robinson, who has been substituting for her sister last week, returned to school Monday.

* *

The comet and the eclipse of the moon are among the chief topics of conversation for the high school students this week.

* *

Monday, May 30, is a holiday, it being Memorial day.

* *

The fore part of the week was spent in review for the high school, on account of the coming examinations.

* *

The eighth grade commencement will be held at the opera house on Thursday, June 2. Everybody invited!
