

---

The Courtenay High School will be closed for two weeks for the regular holiday vacation. Teachers and students will, no doubt, greatly enjoy the short term of rest. Most of the country schools in the rural districts will have one or two weeks vacation and many of the teachers whose homes are outside of the district will spend the jolly Christmas days under their respective parental roofs.

---