

SCHOOL NOTES

Mable Merrit was conspicuous by her absence last week.

* *

We miss Walter's smiling countenance this week, the reason of his absence being a visit under the parental roof.

* *

Hazel Gallivan substituted in the primary room Monday, taking Miss Cravath's place who was on the sick list.

* *

We advise Lucy to set her alarm clock ahead and avoid making any more tardy entrances to school.

* *

Weary Will our local orator, astonished and rather shocked his audience on Friday evening by making the broad statement that "a man absolutely cannot avoid work." What puzzles us is how he manages it so successfully.

* *

The visitors for the last week were Miss Dora Kaiser, Russell Postlewaite and Olive Syvertson.

* *

The school enjoyed a holiday on Tuesday the event being Birthington's washday.

* *

Hattie and Agnes Beach visited in the country for several days last week.

* *

Vera was unable to attend school on Monday on account of illness.

A debate was the interesting subject of the Literary for last Friday evening. The question was hotly discussed by both sides for one hour and the judges at last decided in favor of the negative side. The contestants were as follows:

Affirmative: Will Turner, Hazel Gallivan, John McWethy.

Negative: Mary Robinson, Robert Turner, George Kellogg.

The votes were 2 to 1 in favor of the negative side. Other numbers were also rendered and a business meeting ensued. The next meeting will be on March 4.
