

SCHOOL NOTES

The Literary society was held at the school house last Friday and was very well attended.

* *

Spring vacation which will begin Monday will be heartily welcomed by all the students.

* *

The school board ought to buy a supply of "toys" to amuse the pupils who have leisure moments.

* *

One of our boys always prefers to do his work in bookkeeping in room No. 2. We wonder what the attraction is, John?

* *

Owing to vacation next week the Literary society will hold their meeting on Friday of the following week.

* *

The spelling contest will be held at the school house next Monday night and a few musical numbers will be rendered by the local amateurs. Your attendance is requested.

* *

We wonder what Prof. Ross meant, Monday when he asked Alice about the attraction at Jamestown.

* *

The High School boys expect to have a number one base-ball team this year. They are getting ready for the game during the races.

* *

Agnes Beach is absent this week on account of illness.

* *

"What became of Parker" was the new play that Vivian saw while at Jamestown.

* *

Frank Hoffman, who has been attending the Jamestown College this winter expects to leave next week for Pingree where he will spend the summer with his brother. He will not return to college again until next September.
