

DURHAM PICKINGS

John Lavenskofki was a caller at the Wiechman home Saturday evening.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kaspar Wednesday evening. The time passed very quickly and pleasantly in playing cards.

The article written by the Ashland correspondent about the young man burning his trousers is not quite as bad as it was chronicled by the "Owl" for there was no call for a pail of water or the snow bank.

Miss Alice Albrecht says she has had no trouble whatever about the young men wanting to enroll as pupils in the school.

Harry Telkin was a visitor at the John Albrecht home for the past week.

The Burleson family called on Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Sipling Saturday.

A certain young man has to go horseback now because he has no runners for his buggy; horseback riding is a little more convenient than walking—how about it, John?

Otto Lochow has purchased about eight tons of hay from Ed Schumacher.

Miss Alice Albrecht was a visitor at the A. W. Schumacher home last week.

Walter Hartfield is on the sick list.

Chas. Schumacher and sons, Harry and Herbert, Ray Lochow