

Children who have plenty of directed activity in their early years will learn all the faster in their later years.

And let the child work; not long and arduously, but so as to establish the habit of industry and to help familiarize him with things and tools. It is one of the advantages of farm life that the child can get such an abundance and variety of industrial training.

ASHLAND SCREENINGS

Paul Kokott is spending the winter with his brother, Tom, at Gull Lake, Sask.

Miss Emma Weichman resigned her position as teacher of the Lyon school.

Saturday evening, Jan. 14th, the young people surprised Adolph Stuff. They passed the time dancing and playing games until early in the morning.

Chas. Schumacher and son, Harry, went to Jamestown last Monday.

The Misses Carrie and Martha Kracht and Walter Lang visited at the Lachow home last Sunday.

Wm. Weichman and family Sundayed at the home of George Albrecht.

George Scharf has just returned from an extended visit in Chicago. He is wearing a broad smile and— Oh its all right! We only wish we were in his shoes.

Miss Alice Albright is spending a few days at the home of Walter Hartfield.

George Albrecht and son, Peter, drove to Jamestown Saturday.

Oscar Reick is visiting his sisters in Maddock, N. D.

E. F. Sperner had his nose badly frosted while going to Courtenay Thursday. He says it isn't so bad, but everyone asks him if he has been in a scrap.

School No. 1 has 22 pupils enrolled and it keeps Miss Ruth Hughes, their teacher, busy finding books for all of them.

Miss Laura Barnett called on Miss Hughes and Lydia Sperner Sunday.

There was a surprise party at Lavenskofki's Sunday evening. A very pleasant time was reported.

M. J. Albrecht is said to be scouring the mouldboards on his plows and getting everything in shape for spring work. The too early bird is liable to catch a cold.

Fred Bischoff tried to run his automobile through the snow banks but could not make it go. He says if he had a snow plow it would go all right.

Harry Schumacher has traded horses. He says the bad roads and long night drives are hard on horseflesh.

"The Owl."

EASTMAN

(Too late for last week.)

Henry Quade of Binford visited at Loren Syverson's and Christ Olson's Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Alice Posey visited with her brother, Charlie, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Wendland of Bertha, N. D., started Eastman School No. 1 Monday.

Miss Dell Fortner and Zilpha Edwards returned home Saturday.

Mr. Moran held meetings from Sunday till Wednesday night at the Free Methodist church.

Mr. Bemis and Mr. Moran called at Olson's Monday.

Herman Bond is visiting at Charlie Posey's this week.

Charlie Posey and wife called at Olson's Tuesday.

Rev. John Moran left Thursday for Fargo after holding meetings in the Free Methodist church.

Mrs. Loren Syverson went to Valley City Thursday, returning home Saturday evening.

Charlie Bemis went to Valley City Thursday to visit his sisters.

Rev. C. F. Klein and family left for their home at Deering, N. D., Thursday after a two weeks stay at Loren Syverson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore are spending a few days in Courtenay.

Lee Bemis returned to Valley City after spending a few days at the farm.

Charlie Posey and Olive Syverson have been on the sick list.

Mrs. Ed. Posey has gone to Courtenay for a few days.

Henry Quade returned to Binford last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Posey, Mrs. Ryan, W. W. Bemis and son Charley, Dell Fortner and Rev. John Moran spent Wednesday afternoon at Loren Syverson's.

Charlie Posey and wife spent a few days in Courtenay.

PLEASANT VIEW

(Too late for last week)

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Simonson visited at Ole Anderson's last Thursday.

Mrs. O. Kjelson called on Mrs. M. I. Kirkeby Friday afternoon.

Ernest Johnson and family of Binford visited at Adolph Kjelson's Sunday.

Swen Swanson, Elma Soli and Alfred Soli and lady friend visited at O. Kjelson's Sunday.

John Kirkeby and Herman Peterson spent Sunday evening at Ole Anderson's.

Chester and Florence Anderson had the Dutch measles in a very mild form.

Alfred M. Olson returned from Rice Lake, Wis., Tuesday morning after spending the Xmas vacation with his parents and relatives, and is again wielding the rod in Bemis school house.

Miss Tillie Rood of Binford is visiting at the Adolph Kjelson home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Kjelson spent Monday afternoon at Ole Anderson's.

Alfred and Clarence Kjelson spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. O. Kjelson.

Little Roy Christopherson has been quite sick with a severe cold.

Carl Solberg, who has been staying at Ole Anderson's for some time left Thursday for Wimbledon.

Mr. and Mrs. Amandus Peterson's little girl is quite sick at present.

KENSAL AND VICINITY

Mrs. O. B. Christopherson and daughter Clarice left Thursday evening for Minnesota to spend the rest of the winter with relatives.

Anton Feckler returned Sunday morning from a week's visit in the cities.

Miss Mayme Phillips left Saturday evening for Valley City having visited friends here the past week. She expects to go west to spend the rest of the winter.

Fred Leete arrived Saturday evening from Dawson for a visit with his parents. He is now