

EASTMAN

Alvina Nelson returned from Carrington Saturday having attended Institute there.

Mrs. Allen Greenup, from Hettinger, N. D., returned to Courtenay Tuesday having spent several days with friends in this vicinity.

Loran Syverson is busy hauling grain these days.

S. R. Klein from Binford was in this vicinity Saturday.

A. L. Ede visited at Henrick Larson's Sunday.

Lottie Posey spent Sunday at home.

Benton Beach spent Saturday and Sunday at Johnnie Bond's.

Rev. Edwards and family returned from S. R. Klein's Monday.

Elma Bond and Olive Syverson spent Sunday at Johnnie Bond's.

Mr. Bemis and family and Jake and Jim Keller spent Sunday evening at Loran Syverson's.

A democratic rally was held in Eastman school No. 1 Thursday evening.

Thos. Hecker and Joe Hamel Jr. spent Thursday night at Loran Syverson's.

Chris Olson and family attended services at the Klein church Sunday.

Anna Ede and Olive Syverson spent Thursday in town.

Mrs. Bond and daughter Elma visited with Mrs. Harrington for a few days last week.

Alice and Charlie Posey visited Eastman school No. 1 Monday morning.

Alvina Nelson spent Sunday at S. R. Klein's.

Alice Posey came out Saturday to accompany Charlie Posey up to L. Geisinger's.

Rev. Bachman, of Larimore, N. D., was visiting friends here on Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Bond spent Sunday at Loran Syverson's.