

John Einerson left yesterday for his home at Milton, N. D., being called there on account of the sickness of his sister. He has been employed at the Waldorf confectionery for several months and made himself quite popular with the boys. Frank Hoffman is now employed in his place.