

---

In a letter written to his brother-in-law, Gus. Haggberg, Mr. O. T. Fosholdt writes from Rochester, Minn., that his wife had undergone an operation for appendicitis at the St. Mary's hospital which proved to be very successful and though Mrs. Fosholdt had a slight relapse a few days after the operation she is now recovering very rapidly and it is expected that they will return in a week or two.

---