

Howard Fulton arrived last Saturday from Harding, Ind., in company with his sister and family. Mr. Fulton has rented the farm of Sam Syvertson north of here and will make that his home for the season. His sister is a music teacher of no mean ability and has already secured several pupils and will soon have enough to keep her very busy.