

John Gibson surprised his many friends by suddenly returning to Courtenay Monday after an absence of nearly a year. He has been visiting friends at Philadelphia and other points and made the voyage across the big pond without mishap, spending most of the time with his brother in Ireland. He enjoyed the recreation very much but states he tired of the damp and soggy weather in the Isle of the Green and concluded to return to the land of sunshine and pure atmosphere.