

Peter Gurski and family left Thursday evening for points in Nebraska where they intend to make their future home. They had been farming the August Albrecht Sr. place the past season and had a fairly good crop and though well satisfied with this country concluded to make a change of residence, having disposed of all personal property at an auction sale recently held on the farm at good prices.

---